Title TBD

Assoc. Prof. Niya Sa

Associate Prof. of Chemistry | Univ. of Massachusetts, Boston | Boston, MA

Abstract: Abstract TBD

Biography: Niya was born and raised in Urumqi city at the far northwest part of China. She came to the States in her early 20s to pursue higher education. She loves physical science. Aside from the passion in science, she was a track runner athlete at a young age and has been “retired” after a good 15 years in track and field. In her spare time, she still tries to run but at longer distances. Her big dream is to run a Boston Marathon one day...
